

T&FN's WOMEN'S ATHLETES OF THE YEAR

Track & Field News has been formally choosing an Athlete Of The Year since '59. Our Men's World Rankings began with the '47 season, but for that year through the '58 campaign, the concept of an AOY didn't exist. The Women's AOY was added to the mix in '74.

The all-time women's No. 1s, with the event(s) in which they made the World Rankings that year (if the events are out of normal event order, it reflects the existence of a "primary" discipline):

* = Marion Jones also led the actual voting in '00, but was retroactively stripped of the AOY honor after her drug-use testimony; many believe—even though there’s no hard evidence—that she was also using in her AOY seasons of '97 & '98, something to which she has not admitted.
