

Florida Men Ready To Duplicate Indoor Success

Chart #1

Mike Holloway's Gators enjoyed a healthy 13-point margin in winning the NCAA Indoor in March. In our first chart of the outdoor season, the Gainesville Gang enjoys an 8-point margin over defending champ Texas A&M.

Florida is projected to score in a dozen events: 2 in the 100, 400, 110H, 400H, both relays, LJ, 2 in the TJ, SP, JT. For its part, A&M looks at 11 scorers: 100, 2 in the 200, 400, both relays, 3 in the TJ, JT, Decathlon.

With 6 events on tap in which both teams are projected to score (100, 400, 4x1, 4x4, TJ, JT), no end of head-to-head battles could make for one of the more exciting team races in recent memory. The two schools combined currently own 5 of the 8 scoring spots in the TJ.

Oregon will get a lot of local support, but to climb over either of the top 2 would need a lot of comethrough performances, which isn't out of the question at Hayward Field.
